

Warren County Historical Society

210 Fourth Avenue

Warren, Pennsylvania 16365

(814)723-1795

www.warrenhistory.org

Like us on Facebook and Follow us on Instagram

Featuring
Warren County Post Cards

This post card is addressed to "Aunt Florence" from Alice Moll.

*Alice identifies her family members with a star above their heads:
sons Herman Moll and John Moll and husband T. T. Moll.*

The post card is dated Feb. 7, 1912.

T. T. Moll's business, located in Russell, PA., dealt in hides, pelts, and tallow.

Russell Saw Mill and Race from Mill Race Bridge, circa 1910
F. E. Thompson, Owner

Covered Bridge Over the Conewango at Russell, PA.
First Built 1827—1828
Rebuilt — 1840

The Conewango Refining Company was built in North Warren, bordering Conewango Creek and alongside the D. A. V. & P. Railroad. Operations started in December 1877 with the capacity to produce 1,000 barrels a week. The Conewango Refining Company fire occurred May 7, 1923.

Suspension Br
1871

Hand-written note on the back of the post card reads:

*“Dear Aunt
thought I would send you a card to see if you were still alive haven't heard from you for a long time wish you could come down
I would love to see Maudies Babies
let me here from you love to all, Elsie”*

Post card dated: July 21, 1912

idge, Warren, PA.
— 1918

A closer look at the sign on the bridge.

View from Big Bend where the Allegheny River turns due west for several miles, approximately two-and-a-half miles south of the town of Kinzua, before the dam was built. Noted for its Bass and Musky fishing. No date.

The Old Mill, Corydon, PA., circa 1912

The handwriting on the left reads:

“Where Margaret & I used to get our canes. Her Daddy owned it.”

"Gretts Chocolate Shop" Tidioute, PA.

"Delicious lunches — sandwiches — complete stock of magazines and papers. Walker IXL Ice Cream Featured."

"Courtesy of Mels Foto Shop" — Post card dated March 30, 1955.

Main Street, Tidioute, PA., circa 1915

Post card donated to the Warren County Historical Society by Sherwood Mead.

A special thank you to Associate Professor Lisa M. DeChano-Cook for the post card scans.

Warren County Historical Society

presents

Susan B. Anthony

Is It a Crime to Vote?

Performance by professional actress Christina Rausa

Tuesday, September 10, 2019 6:30PM

Struthers Library Theatre

302 W. 3rd Ave., Warren, PA 16365

Free Admission

This program was made possible by a
Zonta Club of Warren
Community Grant.

